

Aboriginal Video Artist Scholarship 2011

Video Pool Media Arts Centre is a nonprofit Artist-Run Centre dedicated to independent video, new-media, audio and integrated multimedia production. Members of the centre have access to workshops, funding, distribution, and equipment for the creation of their works.

The Aboriginal Video Artist Scholarship (AVAS) is a one-month all expenses paid residency in Winnipeg designed to assist northern and rural Aboriginal artists with the creation of a short video piece. The AVAS is open to all aboriginal artists new or emerging, established or already practicing in another discipline.

APPLICATION FORM

FAX to: (204) 942-1555

Full name:

Address:

City/town:

Postal Code:

Phone #:

email (if available):

Why would it be important to you to participate in the Aboriginal Video Artist Scholarship Project?

Are you an artist working in another discipline? If so, please provide a short bio or outline your experience; number of years in practice, type of artwork, etc.

I acknowledge that the information provided in this application is true and that I will, to the best of my ability, carry out the goals of the residency.

Applicant's name

Date

Please have someone acting as a personal reference (not a relative), fill out this bottom portion of the application.

Full name:

Address:

City/town:

Postal Code:

Phone #:

email (if available):

As a personal reference, do you agree that the information provided by the applicant is correct and that, having read through the information, that they would be a suitable candidate for the program?

Do you have anything you would like to add on behalf of the applicant?

FAX ONLY: (204) 942-1555 by February 21st, 2011

If you have any questions, please contact:

Andy Rudolph - Education and Outreach Coordinator

Video Pool Media Arts Centre

phone: (204) 949-9134 extension 4

AVAS 2011 Toll-free hot line after Jan 21st : 1-855-593-3303 extension 4

email: vped@videopool.org

AVAS 2011 on the web at videopool.org or Video Pool's Facebook page.